THE SWCS IN FEBRUARY

President Scott Douglas welcomed a smaller group to this month's gathering. Despite the smaller numbers there was a healthy stock of material from the several dealer tables. Gord Nichols continued his streak with yet another literary contribution to the library.

1997 SWCS FINANCIAL REPORT

SWCS Treasurer, Bob Zmija presented the 1997 SWCS financial report. The impressive report was presented with take-home copies for our members. Bob was applauded for his efforts. Bob also reminded members that time is running out on the sale of the ONA's 'Dream Vacation' lottery tickets.

MEMBER'S REPORT

Richard McClean reported on his experience at the Florida coin show. The popularity of this show might even be read by the line up of people waiting for its doors to open. Richard found a number of familiar faces who also made the journey from north of the border. In fact, Richard found that the Canadian material had been snapped up by the time he went through. Even with the sorry state of the exchange rate, there was not a key date Canadian piece to be found. It was reported that if you did come across some Canadian material the American dealers are very anxious to part with it. Scott added his support in recommending this show. Scott felt that the show is worthwhile just for the entertainment value alone. The show is an opportunity to do some window shopping over material you've never seen before. While it pales in comparison to the gradeur of the Florida show there was another quality Paris show on our side of the border.

FEBRUARY'S FEATURE PRESENTATION

For the February meeting, members were entertained with a video on the German inflation. This thought provoking video outlined a currency that dropped from 4.2 marks to a dollar down to 4.2 trillion marks to a dollar before the inflation ceased. The money became so valueless that it
